

United States: Cotton (Ameri-Pima)

Yellow numbers indicate percent of national total each state contributes to national production annually. States not numbered contribute less than 1% to the national total.

Legend

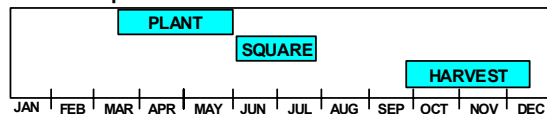

Major growing areas

Minor growing areas

- Major growing areas combined account for 75% of total national production annually
- Major and minor growing areas combined account for 99% of total national production annually
- Major and minor growing areas and state production percentages based upon averaged NASS county-level and state production data from 1996-2000

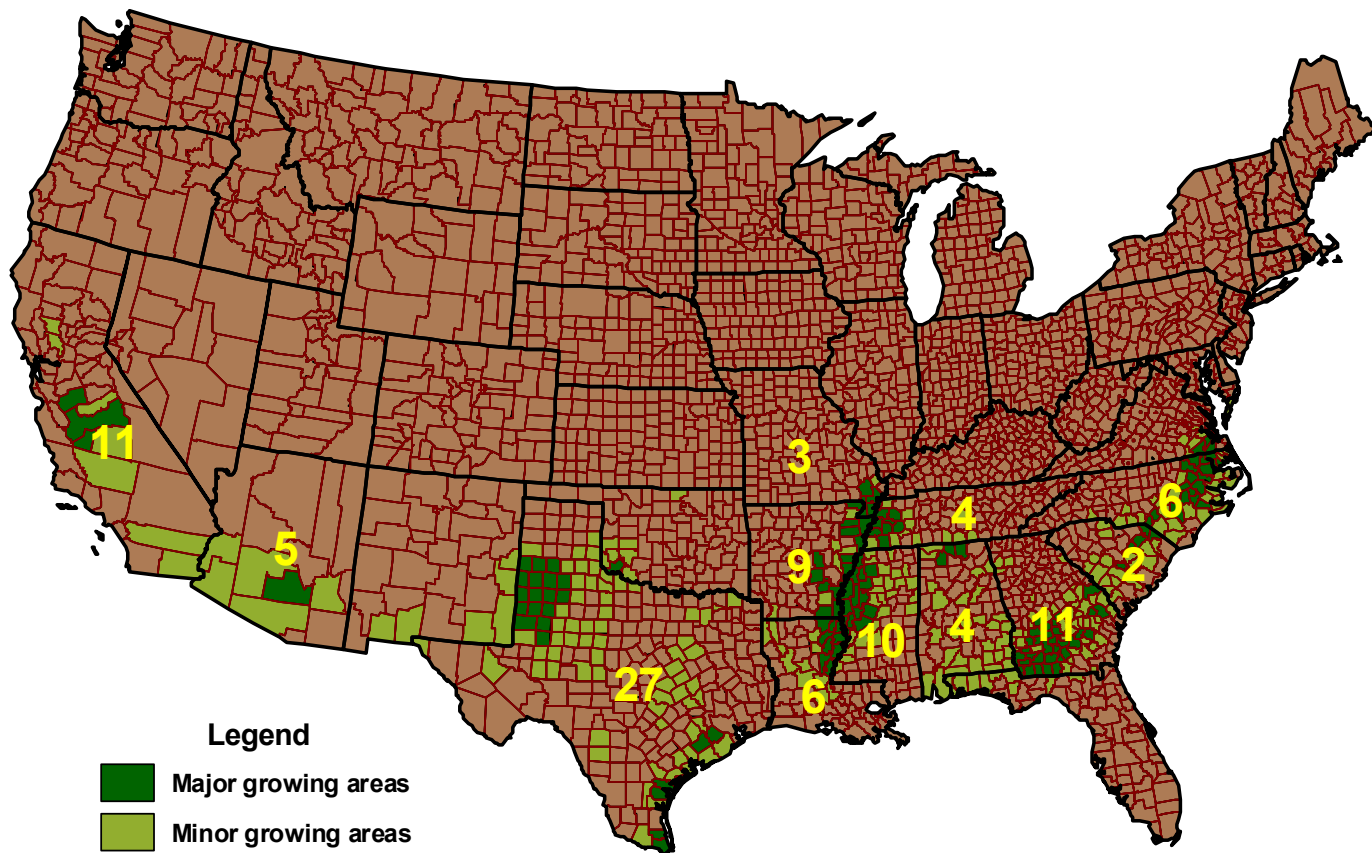

Cotton crop calendar for the southwestern United States

JOINT AGRICULTURAL WEATHER FACILITY (JAWF)

United States: Cotton (Upland)

Yellow numbers indicate percent of national total each state contributes to national production annually. States not numbered contribute less than 1% to the national total.

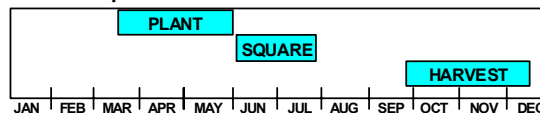

Legend

- Major growing areas
- Minor growing areas

- Major growing areas combined account for 75% of total national production annually
- Major and minor growing areas combined account for 99% of total national production annually
- Major and minor growing areas and state production percentages based upon averaged NASS county-level and state production data from 1996-2000

Cotton crop calendar for most of the United States

JOINT AGRICULTURAL WEATHER FACILITY (JAWF)